- Round 3: Explanation + submission review (no new external tools)

Important: Usage of any other tools may result in disqualification.

AI Tools Policy (ChatGPT / Perplexity)

AItools areuseful in modern development. Thisevent permits AI usage with strict fairness rules. AI usage is allowed only under monitoring of coordinators assigned to each team.

Allowed AI tools include: ChatGPT, Perplexity.

AI is allowed for:
- Explaining concepts
- Generating small snippets
- Fixing bugs
- Suggesting layout/CSS improvements

AI is NOT allowed to:
- Generate the entire webpage
- Provide a full ready-made solution that is directly copy-pasted with minimal team effort

No prompt-to-finish cloning: Teams must build and edit the webpage themselves. Excessive AI copy-paste may lead to penalties.

Scoring Criteria (Per Round: 100 points)

- UI Accuracy: 40 points (spacing, colors, typography, alignment)
- Completion: 30 points (how much of the target page is cloned)
- Responsiveness: 20 points (mobile & desktop layout)
- Code Quality: 10 points (semantic HTML, clean CSS, readable structure)

Submission Rules

- Each team must submit a GitHub repository.
- Late submissions after time ends may receive penalties (organizer decision).
- Plagiarism rule: Submitting templates downloaded from the internet (with or without AI) is prohibited.
- Transparency: Organizers may ask teams to explain their code. If a team cannot explain key parts, penalties/disqualification may apply.
- Fairness: If AI is allowed, it is allowed equally for all teams. No private mentors or external human help is permitted.

Disqualification

- Copying another team's code
- Using downloaded full templates and claiming them as original work
- Receiving external human assistance (friends/seniors/mentors) during the round
- Any cheating, misconduct, or violation of AI tool policy

Tie-Breaker Rules

- Higher score in Round 3 wins. If still tied: higher UI
- Accuracy total across all rounds. If still tied: fastest
- correct submission time in Round 3. Organizers have
- the final authority in case of disputes.

THANK YOU

NOTE THAT A COORDINATOR MONITORS TEAMS EVERY MOVE AND ANY MALPRACTICE OR VIOLATION OF POLICY WILL LEAD TO DISQUALIFICATION.
